We are pleased to extend an invitation to the people of Alleghany and adjoining counties, or natives of these counties, to participate in the 2006 Alleghany County Fair, which will present the latest achievements in Agriculture, Industry, Arts, Commerce and Entertainment.

There are premiums listed throughout the catalogue where you can compete and receive awards for your skills and accomplishments. 1. The Management of the Alleghany County Agricultural Fair reserves the right to rule on all questions not covered by these rules.
2. The Management will use diligence to insure the safety of livestock and articles entered for exhibit or display after their arrival on the grounds, but under no circumstances will it be responsible for loss, injury, theft or damage by fire, lightening, wind or any other agency to such livestock or articles on exhibit or display.
3. Judges will award prizes according to merit, regardless of competition. Decisions of the Judges will be final.
4. The Fair Management will use every possible means to protect property. But the Management WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR CARS or PARTS OF CARS or ARTICLES LEFT IN CARS.
5. All livestock on exhibit must be cared for by the exhibitor. Each exhibitor is expected to furnish his own feeding and watering equipment. Parents of the presenters will be responsible for supervising the youth presenters who wish to stay with their animals overnight.
6. Any person is allowed to exhibit one each of the articles on which a premium is offered, but two entries from one individual in the same class is prohibited. This does not apply to livestock.

9. All entries must NOT have been entered in a previous Alleghany County Fair. All articles must have been made since last year’s Fair.
10. An accurate recipe on all baked goods must be submitted with each entry. Recipes become property of the Fair and may be published. Cover the recipe with plastic wrap and tape it to the bottom of the cardboard.
