PARTICIPANT RESPONSIBILITIES

I understand that horses are independent living beings with their own minds and, as such, can never be entirely predictable. I understand that there are always elements of risk in Equestrian activities including permanent disability or death, that common sense and personal awareness can help reduce.

- I am aware that at all times when in the stables or working around horses it is MY RESPONSIBILITY to:
  - Be alert and respectful of horses’ intentions signaled with their ears and eyes and carried out with their teeth and hooves.
  - Speak in a reassuring tone when approaching horses and avoid sudden movements or noises.
  - Always lead horses properly with a lead shank.
  - Always wear appropriate clothing including rugged boots.
  - Read and obey all posted information and warnings.
  - Comply promptly with all verbal directions of stable personnel, officers and instructors unless I believe that by doing so I will endanger myself, other people or horses, in which case I will immediately express my opinion to the person involved.
Refrain from acting in any manner that may cause or contribute to my injury or the injury of other people or horses.

Never ride alone.

Be constantly aware of, anticipate and be able to avoid nearby horses, people and obstacles, natural and man-made hazards.

I understand that this is only a partial list, and I must be safety conscious and exercise sound judgment at all times. Anyone found to be endangering themselves, other people, or horses faces immediate revocation of riding privileges.

Please sign and date to verify that you have read and understand the above participant responsibilities:
