Information and Regulation Sheet

Why should I be in a Food Show?

Food Shows give participants a chance to learn about nutrition and exhibiting food. This event also helps youth develop creative skills, understand how food is made, and enhance their public speaking skills.

Learning Objectives

- A. Youth will increase knowledge and skills in nutrition and healthy lifestyle education.
- B. Youth will increase communication/presentation skills

To Be Eligible:

- Youth must be between the ages of 5 and 18 (age as of January 1, 2020).
- If they do not meet the age requirement, they must enter as a Pre-Cloverbud (3-4)/other.
- Youth must be accompanied by a parent/guardian and/or adult volunteer.

Divisions:

- Pre-Cloverbud (ages 3-4)
- Cloverbuds (ages 5-7)
- Junior (ages 8-13)
- Senior (ages 14-18)

Dish Categories in Each Division:

- Dessert
- Main Dishes
- Vegetable/Salad/Soup
- Snack/Appetizer

General Rules:

- Participants may enter only one of the four categories.
- The food dish should be completely prepared at home and ready for show upon arrival.
- Participants must include a serving dish containing all of the food made from the recipe submitted. The exception of this would be a quantity recipe, such as a cookie recipe of which an attractive arrangement should be made. Individual portions will be served to the judges in containers (paper plates, cups, etc.) and furnished by the participants.
- Appropriate table appointments: serving dish, napkin, tablecloth, table decoration, and utensils. This is to be furnished by the participant. Keep it simple.
- A printed or very neatly written document of your recipe should include: your name and category/age and should be displayed with table setting.
- Questions about nutrition, preparation, ingredients, ideas for serving, etc. will be asked by the judges. Sample questions are listed on next page.
- Bring hand sanitizer or plastic gloves. Please use them while serving the judges.

Please check with your county to see their deadline to sign up for this event. Please sign up for this event via this Google Form:
